Christmas Long Ago

"Frosty days and ice-still nights,
Fir trees trimmed with tiny lights,
Sound of sleigh bells in the snow,

That was Christmas long ago.
Tykes on sleds and shouts of glee,
Icy-window filigree,
Sugarplums and candle glow,
Part of Christmas long ago.

Footsteps stealthy on the stair,
Sweet-voiced carols in the air,
Stockings hanging in a row,
Tell of Christmas long ago.

Starry nights so still and blue,
Good friends calling out to you,
Life, so fast, will always slow...
For dreams of Christmas long ago."

- Jo Geis, Christmas Long Ago

A Christmas Miracle

People throughout the nation reference the hope and love that come with having a sense of "the Christmas spirit." The holiday season varies for each family, though, as most are riddled with ups and downs, good and bad memories, thoughts of happy and sad times. If you find yourself lost when it comes to the Christmas spirit, you might find some inspiration here, in December 1949.

Surrounded by gunfire and death, soldiers of World War I found a way to lay down their arms and embrace the true meaning of Christmas. The "Christmas Truce," as it is known, celebrates the week before Christmas that year, when German, British and French soldiers on the front lines threw down their weapons in unofficial ceasefires. They exchanged pleasantries, played games and even exchanged prisoners. For a short time, everyone was on the same team, even ending the night with Christmas carols.

So if you find yourself struggling to embrace the Christmas spirit, think about those involved in World War I. If those soldiers can make peace for the holiday, so can you.
