DEAR OLD DAD

It's the third Sunday in June – a holiday we celebrate annually known as Father's Day. This holiday is actually celebrated in other countries and continents a different day of the year because their traditions vary from our own. This holiday observance emerged in America due to the influential actions of Sonora Smart Dodd in 1910, in Spokane, WA.

Talk of Mother's Day observance was happening at the time, and Dodd lost her mother much earlier in life. Her father raised her and several siblings in a loving home and she adored him. It's logical to conclude she might think, "Why can't we honor fathers, too?" So she took her suggestion of patriarchal recognition to the Spokane Ministerial Alliance. Her initial request was to honor all fathers on June 5, her own father's birthday. But the council chose the third Sunday in June instead. It's been a regular occurrence since then, after it slowly picked up in popularity.

If you're a father, grandfather or great-grandfather, how does this holiday make you feel? Consider how a celebration of this day unites the family and share gratitude for the experience. The whole family will appreciate it.
