Love is in the Air... and on the Screen

It's February and we all know what that means. Valentine's Day is upon us. Hearts are aflutter and love is in the air. We could talk about new ways to woo your partner or show affection to those you love, but instead, let's dip our toes into a pool of on-screen romances. Sometimes the simplest way to say "I love you" is to share a bowl of popcorn and a cuddle on the couch. Films like "Casablanca," "Sleepless in Seattle" and "The Notebook" have been known to set the standard for modern-day love affairs and are classics that many of us have come to adore. Those films are worthy of a Valentine's Day screening without a doubt. You might also consider watching one of the pictures listed below, each of which rank among the top 10 list for February 14 features.

- "Pretty Woman" – This film generally falls into the fairy tale category with an unlikely pair finding love both amid and despite their uniquely interesting, sometimes questionable, circumstances.
- "Love Actually" – Also categorized as a Christmas classic, this film embodies all things love, depicting the depths of the sentiment by interweaving stories from different types of relationships.
- "Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind" – This movie leans into a more abstract style of romance, using a science-fiction based love story to embody the concept of endurance in love. It falls nicely into the "Love will always find a way" category.
