Leafing Summer Behind

Welcome to September! It's an amazing and inspiring time of year. There's a crisp chill to the air. The leaves are transitioning, mesmerizing with their graceful change. It's hard to take your eyes off their stunning nature. And, it's also time to rotate the wardrobe and break out the colorful collection of light sweaters. Choose your favorite and get ready to look for a fall festival.

There are so many in September that it's hard to decide what to do. Many festivals are themed and focus on areas such as art, beer and wine, bluegrass, music in general, hopscotch, apples, and other yummy goods harvested in the fall (even collard greens). There's something for everyone.

The cool autumn air lends itself to plenty of outdoor fun. A few fall favorites include:

- Tailgating – This isn't just for football games. Anyone can gather up a picnic to share on a tailgate!
- Communal gatherings outside to watch or participate in sporting events.
- Leaf "peeping" – This can be done on a leisurely drive or on a lovely late afternoon stroll. The point is to embrace all the color of all those beautiful leaves falling.
- Gardening, especially with perennials – It's time to harvest and plant, and turn over a new fall leaf!
