Color of the Year

Each December since 2000, the Pantone Color Institute announces its choice for the upcoming "Color of the Year," by looking at current influences from fashion, entertainment, technology and other cultural trends.

A code is assigned to each Pantone color to ensure consistency wherever it is used. Here's a look back at some palette picks from previous years:

| Year | Color                                    | Code                           | Symbolism             |
|------|--|--------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 2000 | Cerulean                                 | Pantone 4020                   | Peace, relaxation     |
| 2002 | True Red                                 | Pantone 1664                   | Passion, power        |
| 2005 | Blue Turquoise                           | Pantone 5217                   | Gentle reassurance    |
| 2013 | Emerald                                  | Pantone 5641                   | Beauty, prosperity    |
| 2014 | Radiant Orchid                           | Pantone 3224                   | Confidence, joy       |
| 2018 | Ultra Violet                             | Pantone 3838                   | Original, futuristic  |
| 2020 | Classic Blue                             | Pantone 4052                   | Open to possibilities |
| 2021 | Illuminating (Yellow)& Ultimate Grey | Pantone 0647 &Pantone 5104 | Warmth, steadiness    |
| 2025 | Mocha Mousse                             | Pantone 17-1230                | Nurturing, comfort    |

"This Month In History" DECEMBER

1907: On New Year's Eve, a ball decorated with 100 lightbulbs is lowered down a flagpole over New York City's Times Square. The ball drop has been featured in the annual celebration ever since.

1918: In the first official visit by a U.S. president to Europe, Woodrow Wilson travels to France for World War I peace negotiations.

1924: Astronomer Edwin Hubble announces his discovery of the existence of galaxies outside the Milky Way. The Hubble Space Telescope was named in his honor.

1941: America enters World War II after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

1966: The first observance of Kwanzaa takes place in Los Angeles. The seven-day holiday celebrates African heritage.

1970: Congress authorizes the creation of a new dollar coin depicting President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

1982: Gabriel Garcia Marquez is awarded the Nobel Prize in literature. The Colombian writer is best known for his 1967 novel "One Hundred Years of Solitude."

1990: British computer scientist Tim Berners-Lee demonstrates his information-sharing system that would become the World Wide Web.

2001: Italy's Leaning Tower of Pisa reopens to the public after 11 years and $27 million in work to fortify its famous lean.

2017: "Star Wars: The Last Jedi," the eighth installment in the space fantasy series, premieres. The film's $1 billion in ticket sales made it the year's highest-grossing film.
